

Game rules and regulations of the Get Milk Master competition qualification.

The operator of the game is the company App.Umbrella, a.s., ID: 01855867, with registered office at Antala Staška 1859/34, 140 00, Prague 4, Czech Republic

Age restriction:

Qualification is open only to players - natural persons aged 13 and over, younger players are not allowed and can not participate. In the event of a violation of this prohibition, such a player will be eliminated regardless of the results achieved, and his participation void as if it never existed. Participation in this competition is not transferable. A player who wants to participate in this competition must be the owner of a MASTER license.

Prohibited ways of qualification and competition:

For valid participation in the competition qualification any hardware, software or other physical and / or electronic modifications to the equipment on which the game is used are prohibited. Furthermore, the use of any add-on, modified or edited software and / or apps that could affect the game's performance, the principle of fair competition and / or results achieved is prohibited.

Permitted controls and game devices:

You can participate in this qualification only with factory-produced and publicly distributed smartphones and tablet devices from Apple, Samsung, Xiaomi, etc.

Qualification period:

Qualification starts on December 7, 2019, at 12:00 CET. The end of the qualification is set on June 7, 2020, at 12:00 CEST.

Qualification evaluation rules:

The first criterion for qualification is the time achieved. If there are more players with the same time, the date and time of the results will be decisive. Priority will be given to the player who has reached the time earlier after the start of the qualification.

Qualifying for the next round will be allowed to players who have achieved the best 1024 results according to the qualification evaluation rules. Their names will be published and they will be contacted according to their contact details.

The organizer of the game reserve the right to resolve any disputes.

In Prague, November 29, 2019

App.Umbrella, a.s.